> About the Camp

Rora Boys Camp is an amazing week of fun activities and adventures. Sleep in tents, compete in football competitions, night time wide-games, go swimming, work as a team to complete the "team challenges", make new friends and most importantly meet with God.

For Boys between the ages of 10-14 this promises to be the best week of your year.

> Where is it?

Rora Boys Camp is part of the Rora Christian Trust, a charity which is based in South Devon on Dartmoor, near Bovey Tracey and Newton Abbot. Its grounds and land provide the ideal setting for a camp full of exciting activities.

> When do I arrive and Leave?

Boys are asked to arrive after 2pm on Saturday 19th August and leave soon after 10.30am on Friday 25th August.

Train / Coach
Transport can be arranged from Newton Abbot Coach and train stations. Please give 7 days notice prior to the commencement of the camp.
